Director’s Corner

Dear Participants, Caregivers, and Friends;

“I never expected anyone to take care of me, but in my wildest dreams and juvenile yearnings, I wanted the house with the picket fence from June Allyson movies. I knew that was yearning like one yearns to fly.”

— Maya Angelou

Who doesn't dream at this time of year of things and fancy that feel unattainable? It is the perfect time of year, where the sun is already there in the morning to greet you when you wake up and still there to slowly and carefully usher in the very end of long days. Sometimes we get what we wish for and sometimes we do not. It’s all ok, we breathe and we sigh, we are here together. Wishing everyone a wonderful summer filled with some dreaming, some peace and some lazy days.

My best to everyone,

Karen

“You may not control all the events that happen to you, but you can decide not to be reduced by them.”

Recently our seniors joined their little friends for an outing at the Katonah Museum of Art. The visit to the museum was to experience a celebration of nature and art. We viewed several paintings in the gallery, discussed what everyone saw in the different paintings and then came together and did a collaborative landscape.
